

My name is Bontie.

I enjoy making birthday cakes. I deliver the cakes in my hot air balloon, which can go really fast.

One of my favourite things to do in Literacy is to think of as many verbs as possible.

My name is Baxter.

I enjoy going to the beach
to explore the rock pools.

I also love to meet the horses and the cattle on Dartmoor.

One of my favourite things to do in Literacy is to put my writing into paragraphs.

My name is Lilac.

I enjoy playing football and I like making different kinds of collars, to sew on my tee shirts.

One of my favourite things to do in Literacy is to say all the vowel sounds in a funny way!

My name is Jocelyn.

I enjoy woodworking and making jewellery from tiny stones. I also like climbing trees.

One of my favourite things to do in Literacy is to look out for letters that are different from each other but which make the same sound.

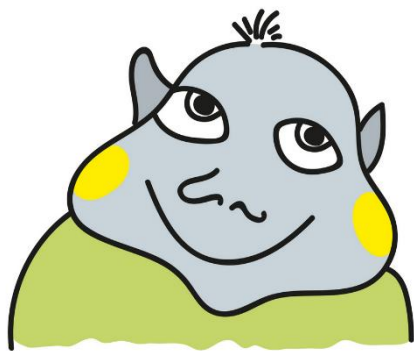

My name is Pintie.

I enjoy gymnastics, especially balancing on the beam. I am also learning to play the acoustic guitar.

One of my favourite things to do in Literacy is to practice my punctuation.

My name is Dainie.

I enjoy playing table tennis while listening to music. And, now that I have a new wheelchair, I am learning how to do wheelchair dancing.

One of my favourite things to do in Literacy is to find lots of words that have ai in them - as we see in my name.

My name is Faidrai.

I enjoy playing snooker. I am also learning about hairdressing and love to create new hairstyles for my friends, using ribbons and dried flowers.

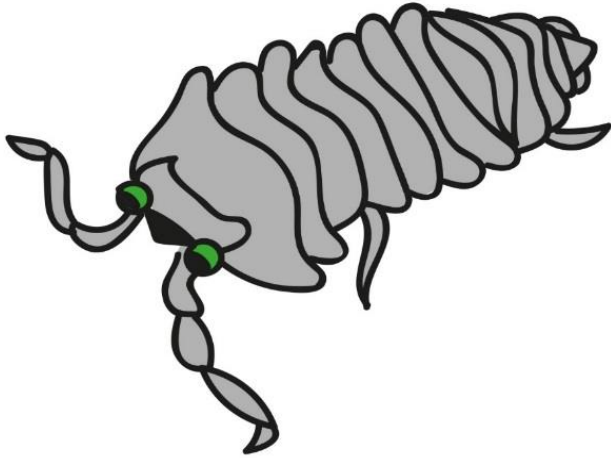

One of my favourite things to do in Literacy is to find lots of words from other languages.

My name is Yomyoy.

I enjoy dancing with Dainie and having picnics in the rain with Fwimlish. Also, I am learning to roller skate.

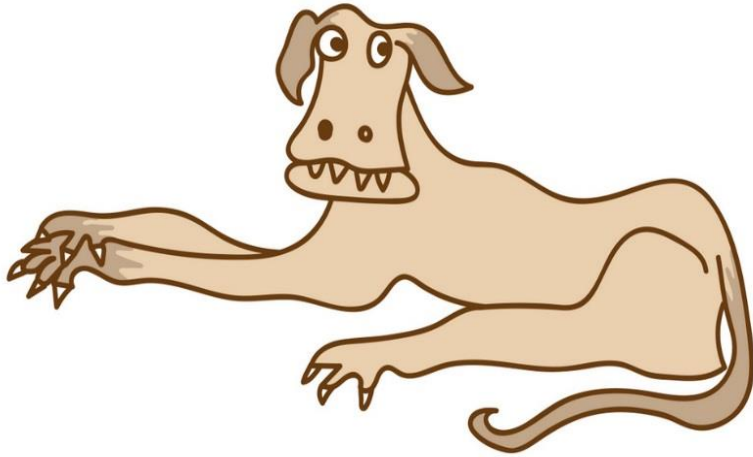

One of my favourite things to do in Literacy is to write poems.

My name is Fwimlish.

I enjoy hiking, so I go to many far-away places. I also like having picnics in the rain with my friend Yomyoy.

One of my favourite things to do in Literacy is to put capital letters in all the right places.

My name is Large.

I enjoy looking out of the top window in our cave-cottage and seeing all the things that are happening in the woods.

I also like to help out any small creatures that have aches and pains, by giving them rides on my back.

One of my favourite things to do in Literacy is to think of as many interesting adjectives as possible.

My name is Poddish.

When I learn new things about Earth and the other planets, I enjoy rapping about them. I also like doing a quiz called 'Guess The Animal'.

One of my favourite things to do in Literacy is to look for double letters, like those in my name.

My name is Nyman.

I enjoy athletics,
especially running. I also like to knit comfy socks
for my friends.

One of my favourite things to do in Literacy is to write exciting stories.